syncope following human papilloma virus, tetanus diphtheria acellular pertussis, and meningococcal conjugate vaccines received on June 29, 2023. Petition, ECF No. 1. On December 6, 2024, I issued a ruling on entitlement finding Petitioners entitled to compensation. ECF No. 16. On February 6, 2025, I issued a decision awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. ECF No. 23.

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, requesting an award of $18,221.75 (representing $17,780.50 in fees plus $441.25 in costs). Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs ("Motion") filed May 27, 2025, ECF No. 28. Furthermore, Petitioner filed a signed statement representing that no personal out-of-pocket expenses were incurred. ECF No. 28-4 at 1.

Respondent reacted to the motion on June 10, 2025, indicating that he is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs are met in this case but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. Response at 2, 4. ECF No. 29. Petitioners filed no reply thereafter.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. The rates requested for work performed through 2025 are reasonable and consistent with our prior determinations and will therefore be awarded herein. And all time billed to the matter was also reasonably incurred.

Furthermore, Petitioner has provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs. ECF No. 28-3 at 2-15. Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought. I find the requested costs reasonable and hereby award them in full.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. Petitioner is awarded attorneys' fees and costs in the total amount of $18,221.75 (representing $17,780.50 in fees plus $441.25 in costs) to be paid through an ACH deposit to petitioner's counsel's IOLTA account for prompt disbursement. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
